

GENERAL INFORMATION

COMFORT: Water and restrooms are available at the start for both walks. The Parks & Public Arts Walk has additional stops along the way.

FEES: Everyone is welcome to participate for FREE! AVA credit is just $3 for each of these events. Donations are appreciated and help to defray the costs of the walks.

REGISTRATION: All walkers including those walking for free must register, sign the waiver, and carry and return the start card upon finishing. There is no pre-registration.

PETS: Pets are allowed on the walks. Pets are not allowed in buildings while registering or other buildings along the routes. Water for your pet is available only at the start so plan on providing it for your pet during the walk.

GENERAL INFORMATION

DISCLAIMER: The sponsors are not liable for accidents, thefts and/or material damage. Every effort will be made to make each of these events safe, enjoyable and memorable for all walkers. Construction and other changes can create unforeseen problems on a daily basis. Please be flexible if this occurs while you are walking. If there are things we could do to make this a better experience for you, please contact us so that we can make necessary changes.

STIPULATIONS:

These events will be cancelled or rescheduled in the event of snow and/or ice to insure safe walking conditions. Rain will not cause these events to be cancelled.
